DECORATION DAY.

Generally Observed in the East.

ANOTHER LETTER FROM PETERS.

Dedication of the Garfield Memorial at Cleveland.

A Pair of Desperadoes Captured at Philadelphia.

The Garfield Memorial.

Special to the GAZETTE.

CLEVELAND, May 30.—The Garfield memorial at Lakeview Cemetery was dedicated to-day with imposing ceremonies in the presence of the President and his Cabinet, Members of Congress and other distinguished people from all over the country. The memorial is a colossal structure 160 feet high, and cost $150,000. The exercises began with a parade of the military and civic societies. Thousands lined the streets through which the procession passed. The decorations along the line of march and all over the city were the finest ever seen here. The procession consisted of twelve divisions, including the members of Garfield's old regiment, the Grand Army of the Republic, State Militia, Vice-President and members of the Cabinet, General Schofield, Senators and Representatives in Congress, orator of the day and other distinguished guests. At the cemetery, ex-President Hayes, president of the Memorial Association, presided. After a prayer by Bishop Leonard, ex-Governor Cox of Cincinnati delivered the oration of the day.

Among other things he said: "It is well this memorial should be built here in the capital city of the 'Western Reserve.' Himself a type of a western reserve boy, his marble effigy under this dome is a sort of apotheosis of western reserve manhood. It typifies the courage of the men and women who planted new homes where the savages still roamed; the physical vigor of body and limb, their tireless industry and thrift and their soaring purpose and unflinching will. Standing in the presence of Garfield's statue, many young souls, conscious of kinship in self dependence, in longing for cultivation and for a noble career, and possibly also in capacity and will, may form aspirations and purposes as noble as the sculptured form and as pure as the marble in which it is chiseled. It will be a bright privilege of such to idealize the character which served as his model and stimulated his best ambitions."

Cox then traced Garfield's career and closed with a brilliant peroration on the martyred President.

President Harrison, Vice-President Morton, the members and ex-members of the Cabinet, the General of the Army and the Governor of Ohio were present, and President Harrison then addressed the assemblage and was followed by brief ceremonies by the Knights Templars, and this closed the exercises.

Special to the GAZETTE.

CINCINNATI, May 30.—Decoration Day is observed in the usual manner by the G. A. R. Posts by strewing flowers on the soldiers' graves. The young people are attending athletic sports and picnics in the parks. Business is suspended.

WASHINGTON, May 30.—Decorations are observed as a holiday, all Government departments being closed. A large number of people attended the ceremonies at the cemeteries, and many others went fishing or on picnic excursions.

Congressman Boutelle of Maine delivered the oration at Arlington and Congressman Morse of Massachusetts at the Soldiers' Home.

New York, May 30.—The parade to-day consisted of eleven divisions, with 200,000 in line, chiefly Grand Army men. The line of march was through Fifth avenue and Central Park, and was reviewed by the Commander-in-Chief, Gen. R. A. Alger, at Madison Square. As the reviewing party were going in a carriage to take their places the horses ran away and dashed through Twenty-third street.

A policeman stopped them before any damage was done. The occupants were General Alger, Congressman Dolliver and ex-Judge George Van-Husen, chairman of the committee.

Gerrysburg, Pa., May 30.—Unusually large crowds were present at Decoration Day exercises. A large Congressional delegation was present. The feature of the day's proceedings was the address of Senator Ingalls.

Peters and Lieutenant Tiedmann, dated April 13th, at Ukum, have been received. Peters says he will reach Zambar in the latter part of June.

The English Channel Tunnel.

PARIS, May 27.—The French engineer, Brunau Varilla, proposes to solve the international difficulty with England which was always raised when the possibility of tunneling the channel is under consideration, by building a pier or viaduct half a mile long on each side of the channel. Through this descent and ascent from the tunnel may be made by means of elevators. Then in the event of war each country would be enabled to destroy the use of the tunnel by the other, by cutting off the connection with the pier. His scheme for building the tunnel could be carried out in six years, according to his computations.

A Pair of Desperadoes.

By Cable and Associated Press.

PHILADELPHIA, May 30.—Thomas and Jackson, the negroes who escaped from the Trenton jail, were discovered by Officer Berger, who attempted to arrest them. They fired, seriously wounding him.

The mounted police pursued them. Jackson was shot dead and Thomas escaped, though they expect to capture him to-day, dead or alive.

LATER.—Thomas was subsequently captured.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

PERISHED IN THE SNOW.

Tried to Carry a Load Which Proved Too Heavy.

A Forest City (Cal.) correspondent to the Downville Messenger writes as follows: Michael Ryan left here last Saturday for his camp at the old Nelson sawmill, just below Cornish ranch, with some provisions on his back. On Monday, his partner, Archie McKinnon, came to town hunting for him, but found him dead Tuesday morning, not being able to find him. Tuesday fifteen of our citizens started out on snowshoes to hunt for the missing man. They found him dead near a large cedar tree, about 140 yards from the Bald Mountain Extension Co.'s boarding-house. If he had known he was so near a house he could easily have reached safety. He was off his road and it was evident he was lost. It was inferred that when he found out he was lost he concluded to lie down until morning and then start out again. He had placed his snowshoes against the tree, taking his hat off, folding it, and placing it on his head for a pillow. He undoubtedly died from cold and exhaustion. Mr. Ryan had been a miner for twelve years. He was a well informed man, and could quote Shakespeare by the yard. He is known to have enemies except himself. He was sixty years of age.

FISHING AND FISHING.

Fine Fishing at Donner Lake—No Fish Ladder.

The Truckee Republican says the trout in Donner lake have been taking the spoon very well for the past week and the fishing is improving all the time. They bite best "in the gloaming" say from 5 to 7.30 P. M. Thirty trout is the best record for a single boat thus far, but in a week or two double the number may be easily captured. The water is too high in the streams for fishing there.

Large quantities of trout are brought down from Tahoe every day and being sent below which shows that fishing must be good up there.

Complaints are made that there is no fish ladder at the Donner lake dam built by Reno parties last fall. Thousands of trout have gone down the creek to spawn and there is no way for the fish to get back to the lake. It was a grave mistake not to have put in a ladder last fall when the water was so low.

FATAL MINE ACCIDENT.

A Miner Loses Life by Falling Down a Shaft.

The Picoche Record of the 24th inst. says: A fatal accident occurred at the old Chapman mine, owned by the Yuba Company, about 2.30 p. m. on Friday, whereby James McCarthy, a miner, and a native of Ireland, lost his life by falling a distance of 125 feet in the main shaft. Two of his fellow-miners were present when the accident occurred, and they lost no time in recovering the body, but when found life was extinct. The deceased evidently fell on his left side and head, as both the left arm and leg were broken, and the head badly disfigured. As we are about to go to press, we are unable to give any further particulars of the sad affair, but it seems no blame can be attached to the management of the mine, as it was his own carelessness which led to his death.

MURDEROUS TOWNS.

Who Will End Their Career in Prison or On a Scaffold.

The Virginia Chronicle of last evening says: The residence of W. J. Tickell on Howard street was peppered the other evening with a small bullet from either a pea rifle or a .38-calibered by some one on the outside, and several residents of that part of town have found bullet holes in the foot part of their dwellings after hearing the reports of firearms on the street the night before.

Scotch-Irish Congress.

By Associated Press.

PITTSBURGH, May 30.—Far more people attended the session of the Scotch-Irish Congress this morning than yesterday. Among them were ladies and societies. The tricolored silk badge, with its seal in gold, was conspicuous everywhere. The stage too was better occupied than yesterday. Many members from far away having swelled the number. There was T. J. Alexander, secretary of the California Scotch-Irish Society. The meeting was opened by President Bonner, and after prayer, John Dalzell of this city spoke on the Scotch-Irish of Western Pennsylvania. The meeting took a recess until 8 o'clock to-night, and in the meantime the visitors will attend the memorial services.

The Bulgarian Conspirators.

By Cable and Associated Press.

SOFIA, May 30.—The trial of Major Panitz and nine others, charged with conspiring against the government of Bulgaria, ended to-day. Panitz, Captain Kaobloff of the Russian Army, Major Anandoff and Major Rizoff were found guilty. Panitz was sentenced to death, the court, however, intimating that Prince Ferdinand might possibly commute the sentence to imprisonment for 15 years. Kaobloff was sentenced to 20 years imprisonment, Anandoff and Rizoff each six years, and the others were acquitted.

Our Northern Frontier.

By Associated Press.

OTTAWA, May 30.—In view of the large amount of smuggling along the frontier from Montana and Dakota, and the quantity of timber being stolen from the forests of Manitoba, the Government has ordered the whole international boundary line, from the Rocky Mountains east to Manitoba, patrolled by mounted police, of whom 800 will be detailed. They will also prevent the Canadian Indians from crossing into the United States on horse-raiding expeditions.

Washington Memorial Arch.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, May 30.—This morning the corner stone of the Washington Memorial Arch was laid with impressive ceremonies. The music was rendered by 200 voices selected from the Oratorio and other singing societies. The exercises were opened with prayer by Bishop Potter. George William Curtis delivered the oration. The corner stone was laid by Grand Master John W. Vrooman of the Masons of the State.

The American Won.

By Cable and Associated Press.

DUBLIN, May 30.—The final sets in the court tennis match, between the American, Pettit, and the Englishman, Saunders, took place today. The match was won by Pettit. When the play was resumed this morning the game tied, each having won four sets out of a total of thirteen. Pettit today won three, Saunders one, and Pettit was declared the champion of the world.

The first set was won by Pettit, 6 to 3; the second, 6 to 1. Saunders won the third, 6 to 4; and Pettit won the fourth, 6 to 2.

Anniversary of the Johnstown Flood.

By Associated Press.

JOHNSTOWN (Pa.), May 30.—Business is suspended, this being the anniversary of Johnstown's great flood calamity, as well as Decoration Day. The finding of the body of James M. Rosensthal, one of the most prominent residents of the place, at the expiration of the year is a vivid reminder of the flood.

Four Feet of Mail.

By Associated Press.

HENDERSON, Minn., May 30.—A terrific hailstorm occurred in Red River Valley yesterday. The hail was four feet deep in places and the trees were stripped of their foliage.

Death of Two Noted Germans.

By Cable and Associated Press.

A Narrow Escape.

NEW YORK, May 30.—The Normania, the latest addition of the Hamburg-American Packet Co., arrived this morning, making the best time on record for a maiden voyage—six days and five hours. She barely escaped destruction by an iceberg in a fog on May 27th. Forty feet of her plates were smashed.

Valuable Present.

The German Emperor has just had a magnificent sword manufactured in Berlin, as a gift to the Sultan. A lion's head in gold with ruby eyes forms the top; the hilt is formed by the Sultan's monogram in gold, set with very fine brilliants. The blade is of gilded steel with a nickel scabbard, and the sword knot is set with diamonds.

Agricultural Department Seeds.

Nature plays her tricks with the flower seeds sent out by the Agricultural Department at Washington. A man who received a package of seeds labeled "giant pansy" planted them in a flower-bed and soon had a small crop of turnips, while a number of seeds labeled "double pink" produced long-neck squashes.

Manufactured Meteors.

So extensive has been the demand for pieces of that meteor which recently fell near Mason City, Iowa, that the honest people of that section are now endeavoring to supply the market by burning common bowlders, which are abundant on the prairie, in a hot fire, and dipping them in a prepared liquid.

A Humane Proposal.

The French parliamentary committee on the subject of limiting the labor of women, girls and children, proposes that women and girls between the ages of thirteen and eighteen shall work not more than ten hours and shall not work at night.

One Franc Left.

King Humbert is a prudent monarch, and does well to do so in the present state of the kingdom's finances. Last year the civil list for the royal household was 15,350,000 francs, and the king spent 15,349,999 francs, leaving one franc to his credit for the ensuing year.

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. WINDOL'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, reduces the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Frequently accidents occur in the household which causes burns, cuts, sprains and bruises; for use in such cases Dr. J. H. McLean's Volcanic Oil Ointment has for years been the constant favorite family remedy.

That sour-tempered, cross, dyspeptic individual, should take Dr. J. H. McLean's Sarsaparilla. It will make him feel as well and healthy as the healthiest of us. He needs bracing up, vitalizing, that is all.

5 O'CLOCK EDITION.

A New Presidential Test.

The latest reason which the New York Sun has found for the defeat of Cleveland as a Presidential candidate is that he is too fat. The proposition is boldly laid down that no man who weighs 300 pounds or even 250 pounds can ever be President. That statement is to be taken with some exceptions. Arthur, who succeeded to the Presidency through the death of Garfield, could tip the scale at 250 pounds, and his weight increased rapidly while in office. But then he could not obtain the nomination for another election and died a short time afterward. It was never urged that his avoirdupois was an objection to his election. He was a high liver, and that fact probably had some influence in shortening his life.

Then, Cleveland succeeded as a fat man. His weight must have considerably exceeded the limits of the standard set forth by the Sun. It is said that he is approaching the line of 300 pounds and has not been successful in bringing about an adequate shrinkage. But then the Sun is the only authority in support of this position. If this theory were to be accepted then there is no hope for Cleveland, unless he reduces his weight. But then the same authority has made out the case against him on other grounds. It is, substantially, that he cannot carry the State of New York, and without this assurance no Democratic candidate can receive the nomination. But lest there should be a doubt, the 300 pounds of avoirdupois are brought in to crush the candidate.

Now, says the Bulletin, the Sun extends its criticism to Speaker Reed, assuming that he is a candidate for a Presidential nomination, and has nothing in the world in the way of success but his avoirdupois. Now that, up to this time, has stood him a good stead. It has enabled him, figuratively, to sit down on a great many tough propositions. It has never been urged seriously against Speaker Reed that he had too much weight for the place. As a sprinter it might be objectionable. But there is no sprinting in the Presidential race. It is more than a dash. The pull lasts for the better part of a year, sometimes longer. Indeed, Cleveland has already entered for the race in spite of the Sun and in spite of his heavy weight and his poor success in lightening up. But the first in the race is not always the first at the goal. If the physical standard set forth by the Sun were really the infallible one it would not only put Cleveland out of the race, but a great number of other aspirants who are abnormally clothed with flesh. As for Reed, his weight will be all right by the time he concludes to run for the Presidency. At present he is doing good work in reducing the political weight of many of his adversaries.

MEMORIAL DAY exercises were particularly impressive, and the beautiful ceremony of decorating the graves of our loved ones was carried out with a feeling of tenderness seldom displayed by any community. At 10:30 o'clock the populace began to assemble in front of the Riverside Hotel, and at 11 the procession moved, and never before in the history of the town was a finer body of men, women and children seen together. They marched to the Hillside cemetery, where the usual exercises were gone through with, and if the old veterans of the Mexican and late war could have been present in spirit, they would have been indeed proud of the distinction and happy to think that they had lived to do honor to a nation so mindful of their last resting place as to strew beautiful flowers on the heavy clouds that cover them from view. What a beautiful custom it is to set aside one day in the year to pay homage to the dear ones who have gone before. It makes one feel that the war was worth all it cost to see the North and South blended together by a brotherly love so sacred as to level all distinction and to meet with but one object in view: that of decorating the graves of the "Blue and the Gray" alike, whose memory we cherish with a feeling of pity and pride.

The grounds of the Riverside Hotel were never in as good condition as at present, and it is worth the price asked for board to have as pleasant a lounging resort during the heated term.

Protect the System From Malaria.

It is possible to do this even in regions of country where malaria is most rife, and where the periodic fever which it causes assumes the most formidable type. The immense popularity of Chamberlain's Stomach Bitters is very largely attributable to the effect of its efficacy as a remedy for chills and fever, bilious remittents, and as a prophylactic of various forms of malarial disease. In those portions of the West and South where complaints of this nature prevail, and in the Tropics, it is particularly esteemed for the protective influence which it exerts, and it has been very widely adopted as a safeguard for the dangerous and comparatively ineffective alkaloid, sulphate of quinine. Physicians have not been adding to its popularity, and we used Chamberlain's Stomach Bitters with the most successful results which it has obtained at home and abroad.

Strong Language.

J. B. Langham, ex-mayor of North Des Moines, Iowa, said recently: "I have just recovered from a severe attack of grippe. I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm to my breast. These remedies were just the thing in my case. My child has a cough some years ago, and we used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with perfect success, since then we have never been without these medicines in our house. I had a cousin who was a printer and was employed in a job office in this city, where they were printing circulars for Chamberlain. He had a deep-seated cold and a terrible cough, and while setting up the copy he kept up his mind to buy a bottle. It cured his cough and that was the first time I ever knew anything of Chamberlain's remedies. I have been strongly in their favor ever since. My own experience and that of my family convince me that these remedies are the best in the world. That may be strong language, but that is what I think." For sale by Shoemaker & Co.

The Pulpit and the Stage.

Rev. F. M. Shront, pastor United Brethren Church, Blue Mountain, Kansas, says: "I feel it my duty to tell what wonders Dr. King's New Discovery has done for me. My lungs were badly diseased and my physicians thought I could live only a few weeks. I took five bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery and am sound and well, gaining 25 pounds in weight."

Arthur Love, Manager Love's Funny Folks Combination, writes: "After a thorough trial and convincing evidence, I am confident Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption beats all and cures when everything else fails. The greatest kindness I can do to my many thousands of friends is to tell them of it. Free trial bottles at W. F. Pinner's drug store. Regular size 50c and $1."

Liver Complaint—Biliousness.

The chief symptoms of this disease are depression of spirits, foul coated tongue, bad tasting mouth, disagreeable breath, dry skin, with blotches and eruptions, salivary complexion and yellow eyes, tired, aching shoulders, dull pain in right side, faints, etc., dizziness and irregular bowels. This complaint in all its forms can be readily cured by taking Dr. Gunn's Improved Liver Pills as directed, and a lingering spell of sickness will often be ward off by their use. Sold at $2 a box by S. J. Hodgkinson.

Somebody Tells Somebody.

Dr. B. Hamlin, of Lemore, Cal., says a few dozen bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy which he sold there created such a demand for the remedy that he could not well do without it. Those who use it find it so much superior to any other remedy they have ever tried, that they recommend it to their friends, and that is what makes it so popular. For sale by Shoemaker & Co.

Irritation of the throat and all lung troubles are quickly and permanently cured by Fryer's Achromatic Cough Balsam. (It contains no opium.) Price 75 cents. Sold by Wm. F. Pinner, the original and genuine Achromatic preparations bear the facsimile signature of D. F. Fryer.

MEMORIAL DAY.

A Sad but Pleasant Duty Performed.

Interesting Exercises Carried Out by the Committee of Arrangements.

The day opened bright and clear, and everything was propitious for carrying out the program arranged for Decoration Day. The procession formed at 11 o'clock in front of the Riverside Hotel in the following order:

Hastings Cornet Band, Marshal and aides, Brigadier-General and staff, Grand Army of the Republic, University Cadets (as escort), Company C. N. N. O., Patriarchs Militant, Truckee Lodge, I. O. O. F., Reno Lodge, I. O. O. F., Knights of Pythias, Citizens on foot, Reno Public Schools, University Students, School for Girls, President, Orator, Poet and Chaplain in carriage.

Woman's Relief Corps in carriages, Reno Hose Companies, University Faculty in carriages, Superintendent and teachers of Public Schools in carriages, Rector and teachers of School for Girls in carriages, Memorial Day Choir, Citizens in carriages, Mounted Citizens.

The procession marched to the Hillside Cemetery and formed a hollow square, when the band played a sacred piece, which was followed by the address of Hon. G. W. Baker, President of the Day, who spoke as follows:

Friends, Fellow-Citizens, and Members of the Grand Army of the Republic: We are assembled to-day at the tomb of our departed loved ones and National heroes to give voice and expression to those sentiments of affection which their mortal remains exercise over the human heart.

What ceremonies could better illustrate the fond recollections which their memory inspires than to gather in the solemn presence of the dead and mingle with their sacred ashes the first and choicest blossoms of spring? It is not in glittering bronze or polished marble that the wealth of affection is most potently displayed; but, rather, by those tender ministrations of loving hands, which suffer neither the blasts of winter nor a torrid sun to obliterate from the bosom of Earth those grassy mounds, which are Nature's covering for the night of eternal rest.

Place not at my grave any gorgeous display—Neither column nor slab need this lonely spot keep; But garland me over with blossoms of May. Those jewels from heaven will soothe my long sleep.

Upon this solemn occasion is wafted back from the tablets of memory a realization of that withering sorrow, when Death, the usurper of all human joys, ruthlessly snatched from its mother's breast her prattling babe; the blooming maiden from love's first embrace; the bride, with wedding garments for a shroud; the groom, while yet the honeymoon had scarce begun. The sainted mother, around whose gentle life were centered the affections of a household, is borne to this sad citadel while the flush and bloom of womanhood was still upon her cheek, and ere life's mission seemed yet half performed.

The loving father, upon whose manly bosom a devoted wife was sheltered from a cruel world, and helpless children clinging around his footsteps, as the vine to the sturdy oak—he, too, is here, cut off before his time by that fell destroyer of mortality. The flower of youth, the joy and sunshine of a happy home are curtailed by these mounds of earth, moistened not by the dew of heaven, but by bitter tears wrung from that great fountain of sorrow—the human heart.

These, my friends, are the sad and tender memories which moisten the eye and dim the sunlight of this bright May morning, and open afresh the wounds which time cannot efface; and yet, to die is but the breaking of a new dawn, where eternal sunshine guides the footstep to immortality, where shade and shadow, suffering and sorrow enter not her portals and have no abiding place therein. This is the anchor of hope which lightens the burdens of the soul and soothes the aching heart in those sad hours of sorrow and tribulation, while darkness seems to envelop the face of the earth. And to-day, while we perform these sad offices for the dead, we catch the echo from the further shore that "they are not dead, but sleeping," and will one day welcome our coming to that glorious edifice, "that house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens."

We join in this solemn service that noble band of veterans, the Grand Army of the Republic, in offering that tribute of respect and gratitude to their fallen comrades, which their valor and patriotism so pre-eminently deserve. Although a quarter of a century has been added to the scroll of time since they offered up their lives, a willing sacrifice, upon the altar of their country, yet are their deeds of chivalry and devotion to the cause of liberty as fresh in the minds of every loyal citizen as when the curtain fell in the last act in the drama of treason that memorable morning at Appomattox.

What a grand spectacle, my countrymen, do these ceremonies afford to the enlightened nations of the earth! Behold over sixty millions of people gathered around the sepulcher of the Nation's defenders, throwing their last resting place with Nature's choicest gifts.

Is not this unerring proof of the lofty civilization of our people, and their unswerving devotion and loyalty to that country and its institutions, which the valor of her sons so gallantly preserved? This is not a proper time to rehearse the glory of their achievements, or to refer at length to that fierce and desperate struggle which maintained our autonomy and the union of these States. Its minutest details are the property of the Nation's history, and its last resting place with Nature's choicest gifts. For earnest and self-sacrificing devotion to principle, for uncompromising and conspicuous heroism, the Grand Army of the Republic stands unparalleled in the annals of the world's history. To you and your fallen companions the Nation owes a debt of gratitude, which neither place nor pension can ever repay. It is to the distinguished services of that noble army that we are indebted for the preservation and perpetuity of our present form of Government, and for the establishment upon this continent, in practice as well as theory, of that grand declaration of principles: "That all men, either white or black, are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness!"

By your gallant bravery and never faltering determination the clanking chains and fetters of hereditary bondage were stripped from the limbs of four millions of the human race, and dispelled the illusion so boldly asserted by one of their masters: that he would like to call the roll of his slaves around the base of the Bunker Hill Monument.

Is it not then a source of unalloyed pleasure, my fellow-citizens, to realize that to-day in free America, with the bands of Union unsevered, one people under one flag, the glorious Star Spangled Banner, meet in union with the Grand Army of the Republic and cover the graves of their fallen comrades with those precious gifts from God to man—Nature's beautiful flowers.

Then cover them over with beautiful flowers: Their marches are ended, life's labors are over. The heritage won by their valor is ours: May they reap their reward on Eternity's shore.

The choir then sang a hymn, when the beautiful ceremony of the G. A. R. was gone through with the City Marshal pronounced a general benediction and the throng scattered to the last resting place of their dear ones, and with tearful eyes covered the heavy clouds with spring's choicest flowers.

After decorating the graves the assembly was sounded and the line formed in the order that the Chaplain pronounced a general benediction and the throng scattered to the last resting place of their dear ones, and with tearful eyes covered the heavy clouds with spring's choicest flowers.

SILVER CONVENTION.

They Do Their Work Well and Adjourn.

The Committee on Resolutions at the Silver Convention at Carson yesterday reported the following, which were adopted amid much enthusiasm:

The people of Nevada in convention assembled, do, by their delegates, request their Senators and Representatives in Congress to favor a measure for opening the mints of the United States to the free and unlimited coinage of standard silver dollars of the present weight and fineness, to be a legal tender for all debts, public and private, and to support no other bill. We can wait for justice rather than to submit to any delusive measure.

Resolved, That we disclaim any purpose of organizing the friends of free coinage for political action, yet as events may hereafter make such organization expedient, it is therefore

Resolved, That a Free Coinage State Central Committee be chosen by this Convention to consist of five members from Storey county, three from Washoe, three from Elko and two from each of the other counties in the State, with power in the discretion of a majority of said State Central Committee to call another Free Coinage Convention at such time and place as may be deemed expedient.

In accordance with the resolutions, and the following Central Committee was appointed: Esmeralda county—A. C. May and S. A. Knapp.

Ormsby—S. P. Davis and G. W. Chedick.

Storey—C. E. Mack, F. M. Huffaker, D. B. Lyman, E. Strother and W. E. Deal.

Washoe—F. G. Newlands, J. C. Hagerman and C. C. Powning.

Lyon—W. J. Westerfield, Geo. E. Jaqua.

Douglas—H. Harris, F. A. Dresler.

Eureka—To be named hereafter.

Lander—J. B. Williamson, J. A. Blossom.

Elko—T. C. Plunkett, J. J. Meigs and C. W. Grover.

Humboldt—E. D. Kelly and G. S. Nixon.

Lincoln—J. P. Pujade and E. D. Turner.

White Pine—Joseph Grandelmeier, W. N. McGill.

Nye—Thos. Warberton and George Earnest.

On motion it was decided to telegraph the resolutions to President Harrison and our Representatives in Congress.

There were sixty-eight members present, and they did their work with an earnestness seldom displayed.

During the delivery of Hon. Thomas Fitch's speech he was cheered to the echo.

It is to be hoped that the State Central Committee will have no occasion for calling a convention.

A RUNAWAY.

A Team Blid With Fright Runs Into Folsom & Wells' Store.

As a man by the name of Cox was unloading some wood in front of the Washoe Brewery last night about 6 o'clock, his team of bay horses started at a break-neck pace down Sierra street, and by the time they got to the railroad crossing they were blind with fright and going like the wind. They took a bee line for Folsom & Wells' store doors, but missed their reckoning and straddled the narrow space between the two doors, and one of them fell like a beef on the sidewalk and the other went through the doorway and fell on the inside of the store. It seems almost miraculous, but no particular damage was done to either horses or wagon, but Shed Wells did no escape so fortunately. He was sitting in the store with his back to the door reading the doorgay and when the crash came, and, looking around quickly, he saw a horse coming through the doorway at a rate of speed that caused him to reach the back door, a distance of about 75 feet, at one jump, and he would have been going yet had not a friend stopped him as he was crossing Second street. He looks about 20 years older than he did, and one would take him to be a man of at least 40.

Ladies Guild.

A regular meeting of the Ladies Guild will be held at the rectory on Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. Supper will be served from 5 to 8 o'clock, for which a charge of 25 cents will be made. A cordial invitation is extended.

Beginning to Show Up.

The Tribune says: That lone pine tree that stands on the summit directly west of Carson has again lifted its leafless branches from the snow, a proof of how fast the beautiful is passing away, for only four weeks ago not even the top could be seen.

The Dog Tax.

Would it not be a good idea for the authorities to enforce the dog tax? The streets are overrun with curs, and a smart boy could make good wages any day by doing on hour's work on any street corner in town.

CLEAR YOUR FACE.

It is now known that a pimply skin is not the result of blood disease, but is caused by impaired digestion, for which they now give vegetable correctives instead of minerals. Two short testimonials are given to contrast the action of the potent sarsaparilla and Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. Mrs. C. D. Stuart of 1221 Mission street, S. F., writes that she took one of the leading sarsaparillas for indigestion and dyspepsia. Its only effect was to cause pimples to appear on her face. Upon taking Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla the first effect was the disappearance of the pimples and she was subsequently relieved of the indigestion and dyspepsia.

Robert Stewart also writes from Petaluma, Cal., that he being troubled with boils he found that one of the leading sarsaparillas actually increased the eruptions, which responded at once to Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla and disappeared immediately.

Speech.

The transition from long, lingering and painful sickness to robust health marks an epoch in the life of the individual. Such a remarkable event is treasured in the memory and the agency whereby the good health has been attained is gratefully recalled. Hence it is that so much has been in praise of Electric Bitters. So many feel they owe their restoration to health to the use of the Great Alterative and Tonic. If you are troubled with any disease of the Kidneys or Liver or Stomach, of long or short standing you will surely find relief by the use of Electric Bitters. Sold at 50c and $1 per bottle at W. F. Pinner's drug store.

The peculiar combination, proportion and preparation of Hood's Sarsaparilla makes this medicine different from others and superior to all in actual curative power. Sold by all druggists. Prepared by C. J. Hood & Co., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.
